DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see pages 5-8, filed December 15, 2004, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-10 under 35 USC 102(e) and 35 USC 103(a) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Kang (US Patent No. 6,198,780 B1) and Abe (US Patent No. 6,148,037 cited in the Office Action mailed September 30, 2004).

Claim Objections

2. Claim 5 is objected to because of the following informalities: in line 3, "provide" should be "to provide" or "providing". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-4 and 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kang (US Patent No. 6,198,780 B1). Figure 1 of Kang discloses the claimed invention including a narrow band pass filter (160), a non-linear transformer (180) and a loop filter (200). (See also Figure 2 and column 3, line 36 - column 5, line 14)

5. Claims 1, 5, 6 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Abe (US Patent No. 6,148,037 cited in the Office Action mailed September 30, 2004). Figure 4 of Abe discloses the claimed invention including a narrow band pass filter (263) and a non-linear transformer (264) wherein the non-linear transformer is adapted to square the signal portion thereby providing a complex signal having a real and an imaginary component and provide the imaginary component as the timing-retrievable signal. (See column 5, lines 39-67) Since the output of the complex square computing circuit ( $u_k$ ) is a complex sequence, it is inherent that it includes a real and imaginary component and that the imaginary component is subsequently processed to retrieve timing information.
